Boat Tour & Snorkelling

What's the best way to uncover Kea's hidden beaches, ancient ruins and untouched beauty? By boat, of course. Whizz around the entire island on a day trip and take in all the sights, including the renowned archaeological site of Karthaia. And explore our wonders under the sea with a spot of snorkelling along the way.

Kea's Ancient Footpaths

Follow in the footsteps of our ancestors, who created an intricate network of 12 walking trail routes – spanning 81km! Plan your journey perfectly to uncover must-visit sights while you stroll along the stone-paved footpaths, from the ancient theatre in Karthaia to the luscious royal oak forests.

A Trip To Ioulida

Set on a picturesque hillside overlooking the Aegean, Ioulida (or Chora) is layered with traditional architecture, authentic flavours and boutique shops. Perfect for a day trip or evening of fun, you can live life like a local in town. And no trip would be complete without paying the ancient stone Lion of Kea a visit. A reminder of Kea's mythological spirit, the lion gets everyone on the island talking.

Stroll To The Lighthouse

Whether you spotted it from your balcony and are curious to see it for yourself or fancy a romantic day date idea, we recommend embarking on a walk to the lighthouse of Aghios Nikolaos. Located at the edge of the bay, this hour-long walk passes by a multitude of sights from the prehistoric settlement of Aghia Irini to The Kokka. And on the way back, why not stop off in Voukari village for a cocktail or a delicious dessert?
